

WOLLONGONG CITY COUNCIL

CODE OF CONDUCT

STAFF

Adopted 6 May 2024

STATEMENT FROM THE GENERAL MANAGER

I am pleased to introduce to you the Wollongong City Council Code of Conduct. The Executive and Senior Leadership Team of Council are strongly committed to driving a high performing organisation underpinned by robust governance practices and ethics principles. The attitudes, values, beliefs, and behaviours of our leaders and staff must support good governance. Our staff values are included in this Code and demonstrate our collective commitment to achieving the very best outcomes for our community. We are continually focused on proactively driving the highest ethical standards in our conduct and interactions and have zero-tolerance for fraud and corruption in the delivery of all our policies, processes, and projects throughout all levels of our organisation.

Protecting the reputation of the Council is vital to ensure our credibility and maintain public trust in what we do. The Code of Conduct helps all of us comply with our professional obligations and maintain high standards of ethical conduct. Everyone working with Council should expect to be treated, and must treat others, with respect, dignity and fairness. The Code does not cover every issue that may arise but provides guidance around standards of behaviour. I expect all Council employees and delegates to make themselves aware of the Code and to implement and comply with its provisions and the core values on which it is based. You are required to act both within the letter and spirit of the Code.

If you need further information on Council's Code of Conduct or advice on any ethical conduct issues, speak to your manager, Governance, People and Culture or any member of the Leadership team.

Part 1: Introduction

Part 1 - Introduction

This Code of Conduct applies to members of Council staff, including the General Manager. It is based on the Model Code of Conduct for Local Councils in NSW (“the Model Code of Conduct”) which is made under section 440 of the Local Government Act 1993 (“LGA”) and the Local Government (General) Regulation 2021 (“the Regulation”).

The Model Code of Conduct sets the minimum standards of conduct for Council officials. It is prescribed by regulation to assist Council officials to:

- understand and comply with the standards of conduct that are expected of them
- enable them to fulfil their statutory duty to act honestly and exercise a reasonable degree of care and diligence (section 439)
- act in a way that enhances public confidence in local government.

Section 440 of the LGA requires every Council (including County Councils) and Joint Organisation to adopt a Code of Conduct that incorporates the provisions of the Model Code of Conduct. Council’s or Joint Organisation’s adopted Code of Conduct may also include provisions that supplement the Model Code of Conduct and that extend its application to persons that are not “Council officials” for the purposes of the Model Code of Conduct (e.g. volunteers, contractors and members of wholly advisory committees).

Council’s adopted Code of Conduct has no effect to the extent that it is inconsistent with the Model Code of Conduct. However, Council may adopt a Code of Conduct with requirements that are more onerous than those prescribed in the Model Code of Conduct.

Councillors, Administrators, members of staff of Council, delegates of Council, (including members of Council Committees that are delegates of Council) and any other person a Council’s adopted Code of Conduct applies to, must comply with the applicable provisions of the Council’s Code of Conduct. It is the personal responsibility of Council officials to comply with the standards in the Code and to regularly review their personal circumstances and conduct with this in mind.

Failure by a member of staff to comply with Council’s Code of Conduct may give rise to disciplinary action.

Note: References in this Code of Conduct to Councils are also to be taken as references to County Councils and Joint Organisations.

Council Values

Wollongong City Council has defined organisational values to support our purpose of creating an Extraordinary Wollongong. These are:

Respect	inclusive and considerate
Sustainable	use our community’s resources responsibly
Courage	challenge the norm to be better
Integrity	honest and reliable
One Team	together we deliver excellent service

Our values are not meant to be just words on a page. They are part of everything we do every day. Our values are evident in this document by graphics that represent each value appearing on the cover page and each chapter page in the Code of Conduct.

Part 5: Non-Pecuniary Conflicts of Interests

Part 5 – Non-pecuniary interests

What is a non-pecuniary conflict of interest?

- 5.1 Non-pecuniary interests are private or personal interests a Council official has that do not amount to a pecuniary interest as defined in clause 4.1 of this Code. These commonly arise out of family or personal relationships, or out of involvement in sporting, social, religious or other cultural groups and associations, and may include an interest of a financial nature.
- 5.2 A non-pecuniary conflict of interest exists where a reasonable and informed person would perceive that you could be influenced by a private interest when carrying out your official functions in relation to a matter.
- 5.3 The personal or political views of a Council official do not constitute a private interest for the purposes of clause 5.2.
- 5.4 Non-pecuniary conflicts of interest must be identified and appropriately managed to uphold community confidence in the probity of Council decision-making. The onus is on you to identify any non-pecuniary conflict of interest you may have in matters that you deal with, to disclose the interest fully and in writing, and to take appropriate action to manage the conflict in accordance with this Code.
- 5.5 When considering whether or not you have a non-pecuniary conflict of interest in a matter you are dealing with, it is always important to think about how others would view your situation.

[Model Code]

Managing non-pecuniary conflicts of interest

- 5.6 Where you have a non-pecuniary conflict of interest in a matter for the purposes of clause 5.2, you must disclose the relevant private interest you have in relation to the matter fully and in writing as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the non-pecuniary conflict of interest and on each occasion on which the non-pecuniary conflict of interest arises in relation to the matter. In the case of members of Council staff other than the General Manager, such a disclosure is to be made to the staff member's manager. In the case of the General Manager, such a disclosure is to be made to the Lord Mayor.
- 5.7 If a disclosure is made at Committee meeting, both the disclosure and the nature of the interest must be recorded in the minutes on each occasion on which the non-pecuniary conflict of interest arises.

This disclosure constitutes disclosure in writing for the purposes of clause 5.6.

- 5.8 How you manage a non-pecuniary conflict of interest will depend on whether or not it is significant.
- 5.9 As a general rule, a non-pecuniary conflict of interest will be significant where it does not involve a pecuniary interest for the purposes of clause 4.1, but it involves:
- a relationship between a Council official and another person who is affected by a decision or a matter under consideration that is particularly close, such as a current or former spouse or de facto partner, a relative for the purposes of clause 4.4 or another person from the Council official's extended family that the Council official has a close personal relationship with, or another person living in the same household
 - other relationships with persons who are affected by a decision or a matter under consideration that are particularly close, such as friendships and business relationships. Closeness is defined by the nature of the friendship or business relationship, the frequency of contact and the duration of the friendship or relationship
 - an affiliation between the Council official and an organisation (such as a sporting body, club, religious, cultural or charitable organisation, corporation or association) that is affected by a decision or a matter under consideration that is particularly strong. The strength of a Council official's affiliation with an organisation is to be determined by the extent to which they actively participate in the management, administration or other activities of the organisation
 - membership, as the Council's representative, of the board or management Committee of an organisation that is affected by a decision or a matter under consideration, in circumstances where the interests of the Council and the organisation are potentially in conflict in relation to the particular matter
 - a financial interest (other than an interest of a type referred to in clause 4.6) that is not a pecuniary interest for the purposes of clause 4.1
 - the conferral or loss of a personal benefit other than one conferred or lost as a member of the community or a broader class of people affected by a decision.

- 5.10 Significant non-pecuniary conflicts of interest must be managed in one of two ways:
- a) by not participating in consideration of, or decision making in relation to, the matter in which you have the significant non-pecuniary conflict of interest and the matter being allocated to another person for consideration or determination, or
 - b) if the significant non-pecuniary conflict of interest arises in relation to a matter under consideration at a Council or Committee meeting, by managing the conflict of interest as if you had a pecuniary interest in the matter by complying with clauses 4.25 and 4.26.
- 5.11 If you determine that you have a non-pecuniary conflict of interest in a matter that is not significant and does not require further action, when disclosing the interest you must also explain in writing why you consider that the non-pecuniary conflict of interest is not significant and does not require further action in the circumstances.
- 5.12 If you are a member of staff of Council other than the General Manager, the decision on which option should be taken to manage a non-pecuniary conflict of interest must be made in consultation with and at the direction of your manager. In the case of the General Manager, the decision on which option should be taken to manage a non-pecuniary conflict of interest must be made in consultation with and at the direction of the Lord Mayor.
